

Problem Statement:-

Write a Python program that prompts the user to enter the Side Length of a square and computes the area of the square.

Algorithm:-

1. Start.
2. Read the side length s of the square.
3. Calculate the area using the formula: $\text{Area} = s \times s$.
4. Display the area
5. Stop.

Flowchart:-Execution:-